To our wonderful clients of AWFAS:

As we all know, social media has taken such an important role in our lives personally as well as professionally. A Walk For All Seasons would like to continue to utilize social media for marketing purposes through Facebook, Instagram and Twitter. We would like your permission to use your furry friends in pictures, posts and possibly promotional items. We guarantee that our client's full names, locations, and dates will NEVER be used in any of these items. Please circle YES or NO under the questions below. Above all, thank you again for your time, business, and support. We want others to know how much we enjoy hanging out with your furry kids.
